Leaf through the books of our library while you relax in our cozy sofas.
 Traditional Thai-style curtains catch the sunlight and the breeze, painting moving pictures on the walls.
 Slip into a pair of hemp sandals and give your tired feet a gentle massage.

In the midst of the Sukhumvit Road
 Only a few minutes walk from Thonglo BTS station.

There's a house that looks just like every other house.
 But when you step inside, you'll feel the difference, straight away.

Shower with natural herb soaps and old-fashioned Thai-style towels, then let our fragrant lotions ready you for a restful sleep in the comfort of our hand-woven, natural-dyed blankets.

Blossoming flowers and singing birds to gently rouse you from your slumbers.
 A simple breakfast on hand-made tableware to prepare you for the day ahead.

Sound like heaven? We call it Napa Place.
 A place where your full five senses can find the things they've been looking for.
 A few square meters of perfection amongst the chaos of Bangkok.
